
Oh my gosh...

What is that?
KLINK KLINK
Someone's coming!

KLINK
KLINK

KLINK

Well sir, it appears the spy got away.

Ah, right.

Very good.
Sir?
Oh, I mean--
That's too bad.
Sorry, I've got a lot on my mind.
What makes you guys think it was a spy?
Could have been one of my neighbors out for an evening stroll...

Ha! You'd think that, wouldn't you?
But my neighbors are a bunch of rich busy-bodies with too much time on their hands...
I don't know, sir...
For this to happen tonight of all nights, when we're moving your lab and so vulnerable to espionage...
It's too much of a coincidence.

If you ask me this is the work of a covert ops specialist with years of field experience.
...or a scared high schooler with a bunch of dumb luck...
Well, I'm sure you and your team are up to the task, Captain Rissss.
Yes

sir.
It's nothing we can't handle, sir.
Good man.
Is this one ready to go, sir?
Yeah, I just need to screw the face plate on.
I'll go set a team ready to move it out to the transport.
Uh, right...

Thank you.

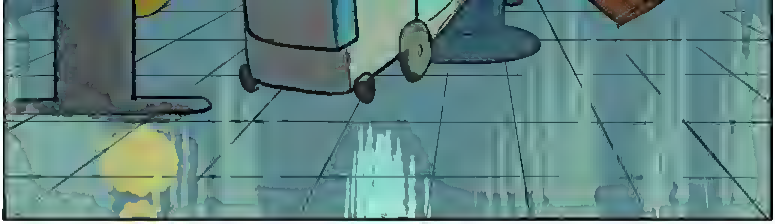
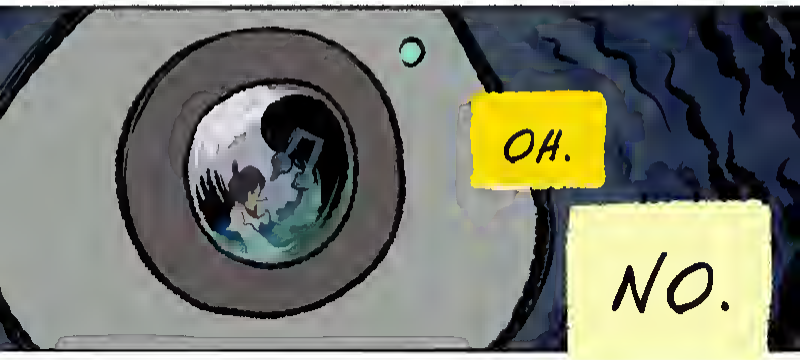
VREEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEE



EEEEE

BEEP!

Warning: Battery at 15%



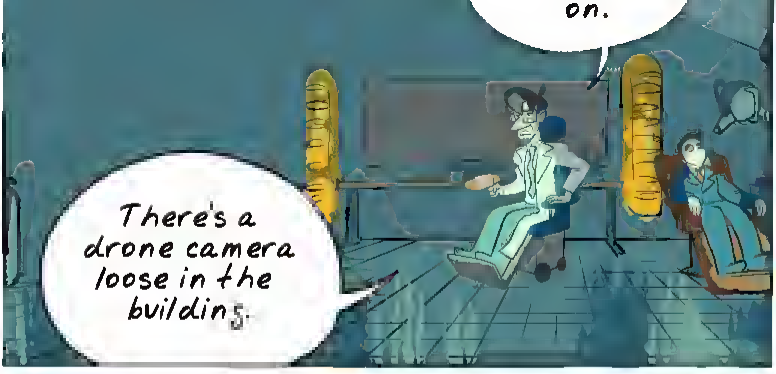
RUN!!

BAM!
BAM!

SHOOM!

Captain Rigss, are you there?
Yes, sir.

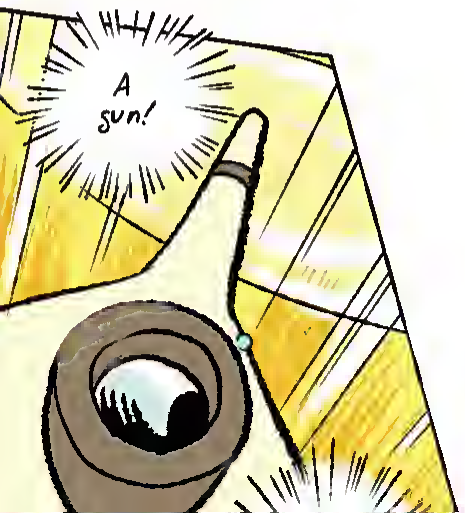
You were right.
We are being spied



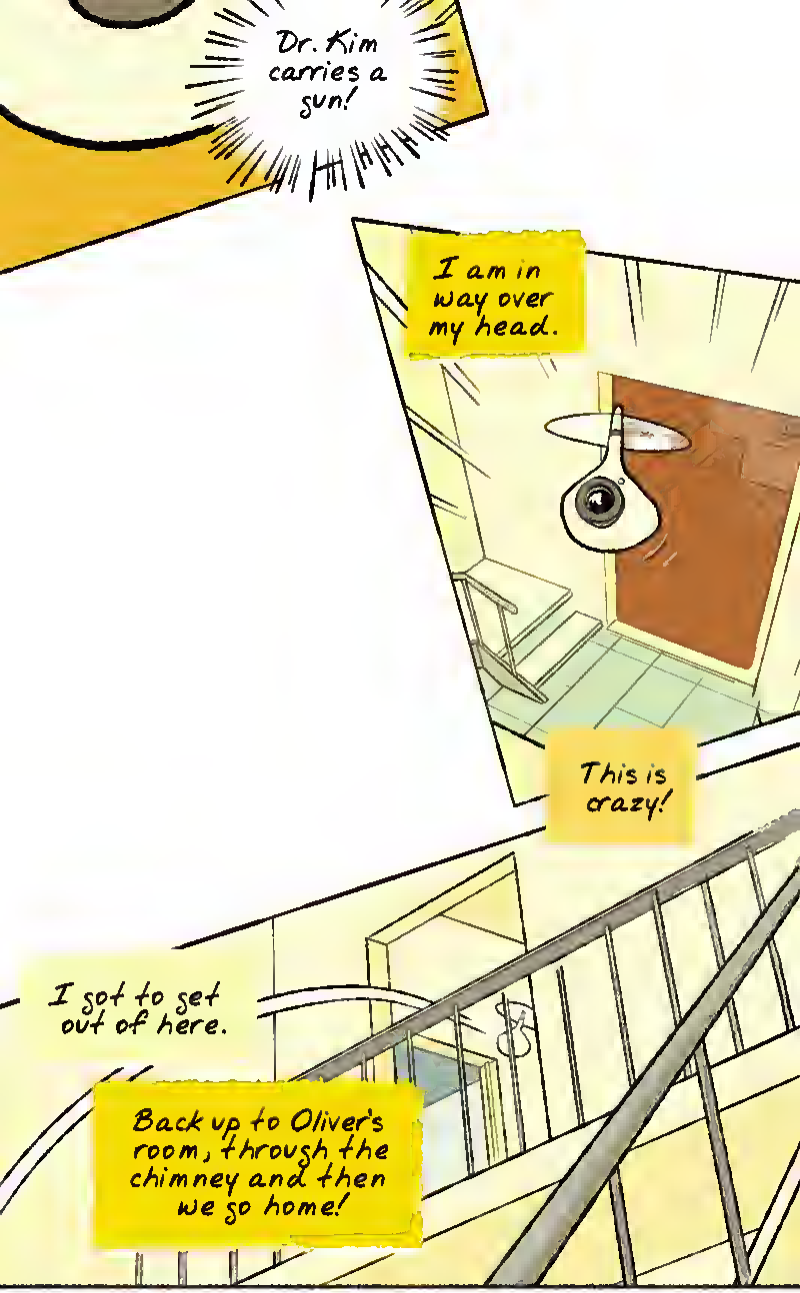
on.
There's a drone camera loose in the buildings.

Tell Commander Saito to halt the moving operation.
We need all our men looking for that spy!

ZOOM!



A sun!



Dr. Kim carries a gun!
I am in way over my head.
This is crazy!
I got to get out of here.
Back up to Oliver's room, through the chimney and then we go home!

Wait--

Was that--
